CONFIDENCE SHOWN BY SUBSCRIBERS

Citizens' National Life Insurance Company Launched Under Auspicious Skies

Nearly every county in Kentucky is represented among the stockholders and the incorporators of the Citizens' National Life Insurance Company which filed articles of incorporation yesterday in the office of the County Clerk, with the subscriptions to the capital stock of more than $1,500,000, and authorized capital stock of $1,000,000 and a provision for the issue of $4,000,000 additional stock. The home office of the company, where more than 100 persons will be employed will be at some point in Jefferson county, outside of the Louisville city limits because of the excessive tax rate imposed on such corporations by the city administration.

Within a short time it is expected that the present Citizens' Life Insurance Company will be merged with the new corporation. Many of the subscribers to the stock of the Citizens' National Life Insurance Company are prominently identified with the Citizens' Life Insurance Company and, since their interests are identical, there is every reason to believe that the combination will be effected within a short time. The company will be ready to write insurance, undertake annuities and similar business as soon as its certificate is issued by State Insurance Commissioner C. W. Bell.

In the articles of incorporation the purpose of the association is stated as follows:

"It proposes to transact the business of making insurance upon the lives of individuals and against accidents to persons and to every form of insurance appertaining to or connected with life or accident insurance, and of granting, purchasing and disposing of annuities and endowments. It shall have the power to reinsure other companies and their risks in whole or in part."

In addition to the fact that the owners of the capital stock of the new institution are, and will be, mainly Kentuckians, and that, while it will be amply as strong as any of the other life insurance companies, the ownership and the distribution of profits, instead of being among a few men of great wealth, it will be among hundreds of the common people. The par value of the stock is $10 a share, placing it within the reach of every investor and furnishing a safe and reliable repository for savings with more than the average return.

Among the founders of the company are such well-known men as W. H. Gregory, Helm Bruce, Chas.
D. Pearce, L. W. Key, J. W. Lam, R. E. Gregory, George Bohon, Jas.
S. Frater, James W. Thacker, Geo.

Musical Club Met.

The Musical Club was delightfully entertained on Saturday afternoon by Mrs. W. V. Haynes.

The meetings having been suspended during the summer months, the Club was re-organized.

The first, and a very interesting part of the program, was Mrs. Jenkins' report of the "Federation of Clubs." The latter part of the afternoon was spent in the study of Frederick Chopin, and his beautiful Polonaise was rendered by Mrs. S.

M. Jenkins.

The meeting proved to be a very interesting one and all the members seemed to be very enthusiastic.

The house was beautifully decorated in pink and cream roses and carnations.

Delightful refreshments of cream and cake were served and carried out the color scene.

Besides the members of the Club, the following visitors were present:
Mrs. Gas Taylor, Mrs. T. C. Bennet, of Marietta, Okla.; Miss Almada Hedges, of Sturgis; and Miss Nellie Williams, of Providence.

The next meeting of the Club will be with Mrs. Levi Cook the 13th of November.

Mrs. J. I. Clement Entertains.

Mrs. J. I. Clement delightfully entertained on Friday evening in honor of Miss Almada Hedges, of Sturgis.

Music was rendered during the evening and contests proved to be a very enjoyable feature.

Elegant refreshments were served in two courses, consisting of a salad course, Spanish cream, cake, salted nuts and bonbons.

The evening was very much enjoyed by the following:--Misses Lucile Nunn, Ina Price, Eva Clement, Allie Mae Yates, Marian Clement, and Almada Hedges, Messrs.
Bruce Babb, Maurie Boston, Clarence Franks, Ralph Davidson, of Corydon and Archie Davidson, of Muskogee, Okla.

Mrs. Clement proved indeed a very charming hostess.

Lawson-Moore.

Probably one of the prettiest home weddings, occurring for some time, was that on Monday afternoon, Oct.
11th, 1909, of Mr. George Thomas Lawson and Miss Sarah Grace Moore at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Margaret Moore, on West Depot street.

Promptly at 2 o'clock, the popular couple marched into the broad parlors, their steps being in unison with the wedding march rendered by one of the bride's beautiful and accomplished classmates, Miss Lucile

Nunn.

The only attendants were Mr. Jas.
Mocabe, a very close friend of the groom and Miss Eva Clement, a cousin of the bride. The bride was certainly a picture of beauty and looked most becoming in a princess dress of pale blue mesaline and point lace.

She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. The groom was attired in the conventional black, the two presenting a most happy picture.
They face the Rev. M. E. Miller who in a beautifully impressive ceremony pronounced them man and wife, all of which was in the presence of a few near relatives and friends.

The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and costly gifts.

Mr. Lawson is the only son of Mr.
Geo. W. Lawson of the firm of Lawson Bros, lumber merchants, of Marion, and is a young man of bright mind and much energy and promise. The bride, the youngest daughter of Mrs. Margaret Moore, is noted for her sweet disposition, charming manner, and her many friends are legion. After congratulations by the assembled guests, the happy couple, accompanied by the attendants, were driven to the I. C. depot, where they left on the 3.30 train for a short bridal trip. The attendants accompanying them as far as Henderson.
